

Linda Aldrich

*15 Elcock Avenue
Boonton Township, NJ
07005*

973-335-8328

Linda Aldrich is accomplished in a variety of media including drawing, painting printmaking and ceramic art. A native of Ohio, Linda attended Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, New York. She began her art career as a stained glass artist in New Jersey. Linda continued to paint and draw in her spare time showing her work in juried exhibitions. Subjects include portraiture, landscapes as well as a unique detailed sgraffito technique on porcelain vessels.

Ms. Aldrich exhibits painting and drawing as well as ceramic art in regional, national, and international juried exhibitions. As an active member of The Blackwell St. Artists and The New Jersey Potters Guild, she participates in numerous group shows. Recently, several landscape paintings were shown as a solo exhibition.

Although her work has been showcased in numerous exhibitions in which she has won several awards, Linda is also proud of her accomplishments as a teacher. Sharing her talents with high school students also adds vibrancy and energy to her works as teacher and students learn from each other.

The Craft Store and Gallery at Peter's Valley in Layton, New Jersey currently represents Linda Aldrich. She can also be contacted through the websites for both The Blackwell St. Artists and The New Jersey Potters' Guild. These sites also contain current and future show information.